

Chung Joins Biondo Investment Advisors

MILFORD — Biondo Investment Advisors, LLC, is pleased to announce that Raymond Chung, CFA, recently joined the firm as Director of Equity Research. Raymond will work closely with Joe Biondo, Sr. and Joseph Biondo, Jr. providing research and support to the money management team.

“We are excited about having Raymond here, said Joseph, Jr. We searched for over a year to find someone with his skills and credentials. He’s versed in growth stocks, his research coverage is varied and includes technology, financial institutions and retail apparel, plus he’s a really great person.”

Raymond earned an MBA from the Darden Graduate School of Business Administration, a BA from Duke University, and has been a CFA Charterholder since 2002. Prior to joining Biondo, he worked as a Generalist Research Analyst for the Federated Investors Mid Cap Growth Strategies Fund. He began his financial career in 1998 as an Investment Banking Analyst with First Union Securities, Inc. Since then Raymond has also worked at Merrill Lynch and Sands Capital Management.

Raymond Chung

“I am very happy to be part of this team, stated Raymond. I was looking for an emerging small firm, with a solid track record, so I could use my skills and really be part of the success. The quality of the people impressed me right from the beginning, Joe Sr., Joseph and the staff have been wonderful to me.”

Biondo Investment Advisors is an independent, client-focused money management firm that caters to institutions, pensions, foundations and high net-worth individuals. Please visit www.thebiondogroup.com for more information.